Yes, my daughter? Did you need anything from me?
The handsome guy that you told me to catch yesterday has been caught already.
Should I send him to play with you?
Was yesterday I got it by a lunatic. Today I got caught by some serial rapist.
Where are you now? I'll send someone over Never mind father, I've found a new target
Let go of yesterday's prey
Huh...
Then, let me help you catch that guy

you can't move,
you can still fulfill your dreams, even if others laugh at you,
you still can once

From now on, our lesson will be different, you aren't a normal ping pong teacher right?
Why are you suddenly asking this sort of question
My father found your beard in an 1500 year old artifact ...
Teacher, what is your history?
